6th Sunday of Easter

Keep Working on Love

A key character in Richard Bach's Jonathan Livingston Seagull is Jonathan's teacher, Chiang. When the day comes for Chiang to say goodbye to his young student, Jonathan knows it is a special moment. He wonders what parting advice his old teacher will give him. Chiang utters it in just five words: "Jonathan, keep working on love". It is this same parting advice that Jesus gave to His own disciples: "Keep working on love".

Indeed, Christ's example of love and sacrifice invites us to love beyond ourselves. It is this kind of selfless and unconditional love which Christ has shown us that conquers sin and death itself. With this kind of love, death is transformed from the taking away of life into a voluntary return of the gift of life to the Giver of life.

Love reaches the eternal level when it goes beyond ourselves, when we are able to love others more than ourselves. It is this kind of love that makes our human relationships last, transforming them to eternity. This kind of love outlives death, defeating death's power over us. Unconditional and selfless love is the real measure of Christian life. His kind of love is the reason for the resurrection.

Our love for one another has to be filled with the love that inspires the Eucharist, the living memorial of Christ's love for us. This re-enactment of Christ's sacrifice in Calvary, which is the ultimate expression of His self-giving, inspires and powers us to love as He does. The love Christ has left as a legacy is the greatest of God's gifts. When we learn to love as Christ loves, we learn to believe and hope without seeing. St. Augustine declares in one of his writings: "He (Christ) disappeared before our eyes, that we might find Him in our hearts".

Let us continue to discover the love that Christ has placed in our hearts. Let us memorize in our hearts the example of Christ's love.

Healing Lines

"I give you a new commandment: love one another... This is how all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another". As we contemplate Christ's words to us, think of those who suffer domestic violence, abuse, and discrimination. They need our love, compassion, and support. Learn how to recognize the signs of all kinds of abuse and prejudice, in ourselves, and for those who touch your lives; in Church, at home, and in the streets. Reach out with love, become a disciple of Christ.

Events and Announcements

Volunteerism, anyone?

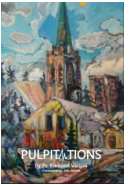

We need volunteers in most ministries. The Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit (EME) Committee is actively campaigning for more volunteers. With the return of our Basket Collection during weekends, we need volunteers in the Hospitality Ministry to increase the number of ushers and greeters who can help with the collection baskets. With the lifting of restrictions of the Communion with the Cup and if we proceed the pre-pandemic practice, we require to double the number of Eucharistic Ministers who can help administer Holy Communion during the weekend Masses. If you are interested in being a volunteer, please contact our Volunteer Coordinator, Marvin Matthews at mmatthews@saintmichael.ca

Basket Collection | Beginning May 11 - 12, 2024 | All Weekend Masses

The Basket Collection will be re-introduced starting the May 11-12 weekend, upon the recommendation of the Pastoral Council and the Finance Council. Instead of passing the baskets at the Offertory, Hospitality Ministers will "wait" for your gift offerings to be placed in the baskets they will be holding at the exit doors after the Mass is ended. We thank you for your continuing support. God is never outdone in love and generosity.

Pulpitations | Collection of Homilies and Writings by Fr. Edmund Vargas

"It is with great honor to introduce Pulpitations, a remarkable collection of homilies and writings by Fr. Edmund Vargas... to celebrate his 45th anniversary of priestly ordination. This treasure memorializes the profound impact his homilies, writings, and guidance have had on all of us that comes from his deep and unique understanding and commitment to the Gospel message." (from Foreword by Jim Jarrell)

Elements of the Catholic Mass | May 4 - 5, 2024 | Before All Masses

This "I believe" of the Creed is able to account for the personal belief and the corporate belief of Christ's mystical body. It is both a baptismal confession and a communal statement of shared faith. <https://watch.formed.org/the-elements-of-the-catholic-mass/season:1/videos/the-creed>
