Godparents

Before choosing your child's godparents, please make sure they are eligible by reviewing the information below:

- A child may have only one or two Godparents at Baptism. If you choose to have two Godparents, one must be a Godfather and one must be a Godmother.
- The Godparent(s) must be fully initiated, practicing Catholics, having received the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, First Reconciliation, and Confirmation.
- The Godparent(s) must be above 16 years of age.
- The Godparent(s) must be registered members in a Catholic parish.
- If married, your Godparent(s) must be married in the Catholic Church or in another Church, with permission and a dispensation from a Catholic Bishop.
- A non-Catholic but Christian Godparent is called a Witness. The name for this Godparent goes under the Witness line on the registration form. This person accompanies the confirmed Catholic Godparent in the faith journey of your child. Please indicate on the registration form which faith/church in which the Witness was baptized. You will need to submit a Baptism certificate for the Christian Witness.
- The Godparent(s) should be models of your faith, attend Mass, and receive the Sacraments of the Church.
- Godparents do not need to be a married couple. You can choose two single people.
